Re: HSRA Release Notification
Homeland Self Storage
1897 West Oak Parkway
Marietta, GA 30062

Dear Mr. Ross:

Pursuant to the Rules for Hazardous Site Response, specifically Rule 391-3-19-.05(1) "Listing on the Hazardous Site Inventory," the Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has evaluated the above referenced property to determine whether a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred.

Based upon the information available to EPD at the time this evaluation was done, including your notification dated September 6, 2007, EPD has no reason to believe that a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred at this property. The property was evaluated as having unlimited access, non-residential use, with the nearest drinking water well located between two and three miles from the site. Enclosed is a copy of our inspection report, recommendation memorandum, and Reportable Quantities Screening Method (RQSM) score sheet that summarize the conditions used to evaluate this property. Based on this information, this property will not be listed on the Hazardous Site Inventory.

As provided for in Section 391-3-9-.04(4) of the Rules, the owner of the property must notify EPD if they become aware of any information not provided in the notification that should have been provided, or if they become aware of any information or events that suggest changes may have occurred in any of the conditions referenced in the attached documents. Please provide a copy of this letter and the attached documents to any person to which title or an interest in this property is transferred.

Please direct questions regarding this matter to Jessica McCarron of the Hazardous Sites Response Program at (404) 657-8600.

Sincerely,

David Reuland

Dear Mr. Kicklighter:

Pursuant to the Rules for Hazardous Site Response, specifically Rule 391-3-19-.05(1) "Listing on the Hazardous Site Inventory," the Georgia Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has evaluated the above referenced property to determine whether a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred.

Based upon the information available to EPD at the time this evaluation was done, including your Release Notification dated May 5, 1998, EPD has no reason to believe that a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred at this property. The property was evaluated as having limited access, with the nearest resident individual closer than 300 feet. Enclosed is a copy of our inspection report, recommendation memorandum, and Reportable Quantities Screening Method (RQSM) score sheet that summarizes the conditions used to evaluate this property. Based on this information, this property will not be listed on the Hazardous Site Inventory.

As provided for in Section 391-3-9-.04(4) of the Rules, the owner of the property must notify EPD if they become aware of any information not provided in the notification that should have been provided, or if they become aware of any information or events that suggest changes may have occurred in any of the conditions referenced in the attached documents. Please provide a copy of this letter and the attached documents to any person to which title or an interest in this property is transferred.

Please direct questions regarding this matter to Mr. Allan Nix of the Hazardous Sites Response Program at (404) 657-8600.

Sincerely,

David Brownlee

Dear Mr. Wingate:

Pursuant to the Rules for Hazardous Site Response, specifically Rule 391-3-19-.05(1) "Listing on the Hazardous Site Inventory," the Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has evaluated the above referenced property to determine whether a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred.

Based upon the information available to EPD at the time this evaluation was done, including your notification dated August 8, 2008, EPD has no reason to believe that a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred at this property. The property was evaluated as having unlimited access, non-residential use, with the nearest drinking water well located greater than one mile from the site. Enclosed is a copy of our inspection report, recommendation memorandum, and Reportable Quantities Screening Method (RQSM) score sheet that summarize the conditions used to evaluate this property. Based on this information, this property will not be listed on the Hazardous Site Inventory.

As provided for in Section 391-3-9-.04(4) of the Rules, the owner of the property must notify EPD if they become aware of any information not provided in the notification that should have been provided, or if they become aware of any information or events that suggest changes may have occurred in any of the conditions referenced in the attached documents. Please provide a copy of this letter and the attached documents to any person to which title or an interest in this property is transferred.

Please direct questions regarding this matter to David Hayes of the Hazardous Sites Response Program at (404) 657-8600.

Dear Mr. Balagamwala:

Pursuant to the Rules for Hazardous Site Response, specifically Rule 391-3-19-.05(1) "Listing on the Hazardous Site Inventory," the Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has evaluated the above referenced property to determine whether a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred.

Based upon the information available to EPD at the time this evaluation was done, including your notification dated August 19, 2008, EPD has no reason to believe that a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred at this property. The property was evaluated as non-residential, having limited access, with the nearest residence at more than 301 feet and the nearest well at more than 3 miles, and a release to groundwater above the Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL). Enclosed is a copy of our inspection report, recommendation memorandum, and Reportable Quantities Screening Method (RQSM) score sheet that summarize the conditions used to evaluate this property. Based on this information, this property will not be listed on the Hazardous Site Inventory.

As provided for in Section 391-3-9-.04(4) of the Rules, the owner of the property must notify EPD if they become aware of any information not provided in the notification that should have been provided, or if they become aware of any information or events that suggest changes may have occurred in any of the conditions referenced in the attached documents. Please provide a copy of this letter and the attached documents to any person to which title or an interest in this property is transferred.

Please direct questions regarding this matter to Amanda Hayes at (404) 657-8600.

Dear Ms. Morrin:

Pursuant to the Rules for Hazardous Site Response, specifically Rule 391-3-19-.05(1) "Listing on the Hazardous Site Inventory," the Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has evaluated the above referenced property to determine whether a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred.

Based upon the information available to EPD at the time this evaluation was done, including your notification dated May 6, 2008 and your supplemental notification dated August 6, 2008, EPD has no reason to believe that a release exceeding a reportable quantity has occurred at this property. The property was evaluated as non-residential, having unlimited access, with the nearest residence at more than 1,001 feet and a release to groundwater above the Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL). Enclosed is a copy of our inspection report, recommendation memorandum, and Reportable Quantities Screening Method (RQSM) score sheet that summarize the conditions used to evaluate this property. Based on this information, this property will not be listed on the Hazardous Site Inventory.

As provided for in Section 391-3-9-.04(4) of the Rules, the owner of the property must notify EPD if they become aware of any information not provided in the notification that should have been provided, or if they become aware of any information or events that suggest changes may have occurred in any of the conditions referenced in the attached documents. Please provide a copy of this letter and the attached documents to any person to which title or an interest in this property is transferred.

Please direct questions regarding this matter to Amanda Hayes at (404) 657-8600.
